

Proposed Charter Amendments

That at the November 7, 2023 Election the following amendments to the City Charter shall be submitted to the resident, qualified voters of the City of Rosenberg, Texas:

PROPOSED AMENDMENT 1

Should Section 1.02 The boundaries of the Home Rule Charter of the City of Rosenberg be amended in order to eliminate obsolete references, update terminology to current legal usage, and replace the description with a reference to the official city map?

Sec. 1.02. The boundaries.

The boundaries of the City shall be the same as existed prior to the adoption and ratification of this Charter and as are more fully set out and described by the official city map of the City.

[Deleted and replaced in its entirety]

PROPOSED AMENDMENT 2

Should Sections 1.03 and 1.04 of the Home Rule Charter of the City of Rosenberg be amended in order to eliminate provisions that reference obsolete references to state law and be combined into a single Section 1.03 setting out the City's authority to fix the boundaries of the City of Rosenberg?

Sec. 1.03. Extension of boundaries.

(a) The City shall have the power to fix the boundaries of the City, to extend the boundaries of the City and annex area adjacent to the City, and to exchange area with other cities.

(b) Any area of the City may be disannexed pursuant to any procedure allowed under state law whenever, in the opinion of the City Council, there exists within the corporate limits of the City a territory not suitable or necessary for City purposes. The City Council may discontinue said territory as part of the City by ordinance after conducting a public hearing on the matter. State law reference—Annexation, V.T.C.A., Local Government Code § 43.001 et seq.

Sec. 2.02. ~~General powers adopted.~~ Intergovernmental Relations.

The City may exercise any of its powers or perform any of its functions, and may participate in the financing thereof, jointly or in cooperation, by contract or otherwise, with the Government of Texas or any agency thereof, with the Federal Government or any agency thereof, or with the government of any county, city or political subdivision to accomplish any lawful municipal purpose.

[Deleted and replaced in its entirety]

PROPOSED AMENDMENT 5

Should a new Section 2.04 Disaster Clause. of the Home Rule Charter of the City of Rosenberg be adopted to provide a contingency plan in case of disaster to read as follows:

Sec. 2.04. Disaster clause.

In case of disaster when a legal quorum of the City Council cannot otherwise be assembled due to multiple deaths or injuries, the surviving persons of the City Council, or highest surviving City official, if no elected official remains, shall, within 24 hours of such disaster, request the highest surviving officers of the Fort Bend County Commissioners Court to appoint a number of residents of the City equal to the number necessary to make a quorum to act during the emergency as the City Council. The newly appointed City Council shall call a City election within 15 days of their appointment, or as provided in the Texas Election Code, for election of the vacant offices, if for good reasons it is known a quorum of the present City Council will never again meet. If it is determined that a quorum of the present City Council will meet again, the appointed Council Members shall serve in their position until such time as the present Council Members may begin serving.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT 6

Should Section 3.01 Number, Selection and Term. of the Home Rule Charter of the City of Rosenberg be amended in order to eliminate provisions which have become inoperative because they have been superseded by state law; replace obsolete references and update terminology to current legal usage to read as follows:

Sec. 3.01. Number, selection and term.

The legislative and governing body of the city shall consist of the mayor and six (6) council members and shall be known as the "City Council of the City of Rosenberg."

- (a) The mayor and two members of the city council shall be elected from the city at large.
- (b) The mayor shall be the presiding officer of the city council and shall be recognized as the head of city government for all ceremonial purposes and by the government [governor] for purposes of military law but shall have no regular administrative duties. The mayor shall be entitled to vote on all matters under consideration by the city council.
- (c) The mayor and six (6) council members, including two (2) at large council members and four (4) council members elected by districts shall be elected to two-year terms. The mayor and (2) council members shall be elected at-large in even number years, except as otherwise specifically stated in this section. The two (2) at large council members positions shall be respectively designated as Position 1 and Position 2. The remaining four (4) council members shall be elected by districts, designated as Districts one (1), two (2), three (3) and four (4), in even numbered years.

At the general election in May 2021, the mayor and the two (2) at large positions, Position 1 and Position 2, shall be placed on the ballot for election for a one-year term. At the General election in May 2022, the mayor and six (6) council members, including two (2) at large council members and four (4) council members elected by districts shall be placed on the ballot for election to two-year terms.

All positions shall be elected to two-year terms after the foregoing provisions have been effected.

- (d) The four (4) members of the city council elected by districts shall be elected from districts which shall be designated Districts one (1), two (2), three (3) and four (4). The area or territory includable in the district shall be adjusted from time to time or reconfigured as the city may annex or de-annex territory or area within the city. ~~A legal description of all property to be includable in any of the several districts shall be on file in the office of the city secretary of the City of Rosenberg.~~
- (e) No elected official shall serve for more than a combined total of five (5) consecutive terms on the city council or in the position of mayor. When calculating consecutive terms, time spent as a council member and time spent in the position of mayor shall be combined. For purposes of this subsection, an official shall have been considered to have served a term upon taking the oath of office, regardless of whether the official serves the complete term. Any official who has served five (5) consecutive terms shall be prohibited from serving another term for a period of one (1) year and eleven (11) months from the date of the expiration of the fifth consecutive term. Such consecutive term limitations shall include an elected official's current term on the effective date of this amendment, as well as all prior successive terms.

- (a) Any elected city official, whether elected to office by the qualified voters of the city or appointed by the city council to fill a vacancy, shall be subject to recall and removal from office by the qualified voters of the city on grounds of incompetency, misconduct, or malfeasance in office.
- (b) The registered voters of the City shall have the power to enact ordinances through the initiative process set forth in this Charter unless otherwise preempted by state law such as: the enactment of ordinances relating to the adoption or amendment of the City budget or any capital expenditure; the appropriation of money; the levying of taxes; the adoption or amendment of a comprehensive plan; the adoption, amendment, or repeal of zoning districts or regulations; the annexation or disannexation of land; the setting of rates, fees, charges, or assessments; the setting of salary or compensation of officers or employees; or the granting of franchises.
- (c) The registered voters of the City shall have the power to repeal ordinances through the referendum process set forth in this Charter, unless otherwise preempted by state law such as: the repeal of ordinances relating to the adoption or amendment of the City budget or any capital expenditure; the appropriation of money; the levying of taxes; the adoption or amendment of a comprehensive plan; the adoption, amendment, or repeal of zoning districts or regulations; the annexation or disannexation of land; the setting of rates, fees, charges, or assessments; the setting of salary or compensation of officers or employees; or the granting of franchises.
- (d) If any officer or employee of the City fails or refuses to perform any duty required under this Article, any citizen may file with the appropriate court for a writ of mandamus to force the officer or employee to perform such duty.
- (e) No ordinance, resolution, or action of the City Council, as referenced in Section 6.01, shall be subject to more than one initiative or referendum election per 12-month period from the date of the election.
- (f) No recall petition shall be filed against any officer of the City of Rosenberg within six months after his election, nor within three months after an election for such officer's recall.

Sec. 6.02. Form of recall, initiative and referendum petition, generally.

- (a) Any registered voter of the City may commence recall, initiative, or referendum proceedings by filing with the City Secretary a petition as required by this Article, provided that the registered voter must file with the City Secretary a Notice of Intent to circulate a petition before circulating the petition. For a recall petition only, The Notice of Intent to circulate a petition required by this subsection must be filed at least six months after the election of the person sought to be removed and must be filed prior to the date of signing of each signature contained in the petition.
- (b) At least one signer of the petition must swear or affirm before a notary public or other person authorized to administer oaths that each signature on the petition was made by the person whose signature it purports to be, and that oath must be memorialized on the petition.
- (c) A petition is valid if:
- (1) The petition complies with the applicable requirements of this Article and Chapter 277, Texas Election Code; and
 - (2) The petition is filed after the notice of intent to circulate a petition is properly filed under subsection (a), if applicable.
- (d) Not later than the tenth business day after the date a petition is filed, the City Secretary shall review the petition and determine whether the petition is valid. If the City Secretary determines the petition is valid, the City Secretary shall attach a certificate to the petition stating that the petition is valid and submit the petition and certificate to the City Council as soon as practicable. If the City Secretary determines that the petition is not valid:
- (1) The City Secretary shall attach a certificate to the petition stating the facts supporting the determination that the petition is not valid;
 - (2) The City Secretary shall notify the person who filed the petition of the City Secretary's determination;
 - (3) The City Secretary shall return the petition to the person who filed it; and
 - (4) The petition may be amended or supplemented and resubmitted not later than the tenth business day after the date of the certification under Subdivision (1). The City Secretary shall determine the validity of a petition resubmitted under this subdivision in the same manner as the original submission except that, if the City Secretary determines the petition is not valid, then the petition may not be further amended or supplemented.
- (e) The petition may consist of one or more copies, or subscription lists, circulated separately, and the signatures thereto may be upon the paper or papers containing the form of petition, or upon other papers attached thereto. Verifications provided for in this article may be made by one or more petitioners, and the several parts or copies of the petition may be filed separately and by different persons; but no signatures to such petition shall remain effective or be counted which were placed thereon more than forty-five days prior to the filing of such petition or petitions with the person performing the duties of city secretary. All papers comprising a recall petition shall be filed with the person performing the duties of city secretary on the same day, and the said secretary shall immediately notify, in writing, the officer so sought to be removed, by mailing such notice to his Rosenberg address. City Council shall adopt a form of a petition for recall, initiative and referendum petitions by ordinance.

Sec. 6.03. Petitions for recall.

Before the question of recall of such officer shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the city, a petition demanding such question to be so submitted shall first be filed with the city secretary; which said petition shall be signed by qualified voters of the city equal in number to at least ten percent (10%) of the registered voters who voted at the City's last general election or the signatures of at least 180 qualified voters, whichever is greater. Each signer of such recall petition shall personally sign his name thereto in ink or indelible pencil and shall write after his name his place of residence, giving name of street and number, or place of residence, and shall also write thereon the day, the month and year his signature was affixed.

Sec. 6.04. Presentation of petition to city council.

At the next regular or special council meeting after the date of the filing of the papers constituting the recall petition, the person performing the duties of city secretary shall present such a petition to the city council of the City of Rosenberg.

Sec. 6.05. Public hearing and Elections.

Upon a valid petition and certificate being submitted to the City Council by the City Secretary, the City Council shall hold a public hearing on the matter as soon as practicable, at which only the person whose removal is sought may be heard. Unless the person whose removal is sought resigns prior to the conclusion of the public hearing, at the conclusion of the public hearing, the City Council shall order a recall election to be held on the first uniform election date that occurs 78 days after the date of the order.

Sec. 6.06. Ballots in recall election.

The ballot for a recall election shall be printed to permit voting for or against the removal of the person sought to be removed and shall state the full name and title of the person. If less than a majority of the votes received at the recall election are in favor of removal of the person named on the ballot, the person remains in office. If a majority of the votes received are in favor of the removal of the person, the person's office shall be deemed vacant upon the passing of the resolution canvassing the election, and the vacancy shall be filled in the manner prescribed by this Charter for filling such vacancy. A person removed by recall may not be appointed to fill the vacancy and may not be a candidate in any election called to fill the vacancy.

Sec. 6.07. Result of recall election.

If a majority of the votes cast at a recall election shall be against the recall of the person named on the ballot, he shall continue in office for the remainder of his unexpired term, subject to recall as before. If a majority of the votes cast at such an election be for the recall of the person named on the ballot, he shall, regardless of any technical defects in the recall petition, be deemed removed from office and the vacancy shall be filled as vacancies in the city council are filled, as provided in section 3.06 of this charter.

Sec. 6.08. Petitions for Initiative.

- (a) Before an initiative election shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the city, a petition demanding such question to be so submitted shall first be filed with the city secretary. A petition for initiative must contain a number of signatures equivalent to at least ten percent (10%) of the registered voters who voted at the City's last general election or the signatures of at least 180 qualified voters, whichever is greater and must set forth in full the text of the ordinance sought to be enacted.
- (b) Upon a valid petition and certificate being submitted to the City Council by the City Secretary, the City Council shall hold a public hearing on the matter as soon as practicable, at which any resident of the City may be heard. At the conclusion of the public hearing, the City Council shall either:
 - (1) Adopt the ordinance set forth in the petition without any change in substance;
 - or
 - (2) Order an initiative election to be held on the first uniform election date that occurs 78 days after the date of the order.
- (c) The ballot for an initiative election shall be printed to permit voting for or against the ordinance sought to be enacted, and shall set forth the nature of the ordinance sufficiently to identify it. If less than a majority of the votes received at the initiative election are in favor of the ordinance, the ordinance is void. If a majority of the votes received are in favor of the ordinance, the ordinance shall be deemed enacted and become effective upon the passing of the resolution canvassing the election, and the City Council may only amend the ordinance pursuant to subsequent initiative proceedings, and may only repeal the ordinance pursuant to subsequent referendum proceedings.

Sec. 6.09. Petitions for Referendum.

- (a) A petition for referendum must contain a number of signatures equivalent to at least ten (10%) percent of the registered voters who voted at the City's last general election or the signatures of at least 180 qualified voters, whichever is greater, and must cite and attach the ordinance sought to be repealed and any and all amendments thereto.
- (b) Upon a valid petition and certificate being submitted to the City Council by the City

Secretary, the City Council shall hold a public hearing on the matter as soon as practicable, at which any resident of the City may be heard. At the conclusion of the public hearing, the City Council shall either:

(1) Repeal the ordinance cited and attached to the petition and any and all amendments thereto; or —Order a referendum election to be held on the first uniform election date that occurs 78 days after the date of the order. ;

(2) The ballot for a referendum election shall be printed to permit voting for or against the ordinance sought to be repealed, and shall set forth the nature of the ordinance sufficiently to identify it. If a majority of the votes received at the referendum election are in favor of the ordinance, the ordinance remains in effect. If less than a majority of the votes are in favor of the ordinance, the ordinance shall be deemed repealed and become void upon the passing of the resolution canvassing the election, and the City Council may only reenact the ordinance pursuant to subsequent initiative proceedings.

Sec. 6.10. Voluntary submission of legislation by the council.

The city council, upon its own motion and by a majority vote of its members, may submit to popular vote at any election for adoption or rejection any proposed ordinance or resolution or measure, or may submit for repeal any existing ordinance, resolution or measure, in the same manner and within the same force and effect as provided in this article for submission on petition, and may in its discretion call a special election for this purpose. No ordinance, resolution or measure may be voluntarily submitted to the voters twice within any 12-month period under this Sec. 6.10.

Sec. 6.11. Inconsistent ordinances.

If the provisions of two or more proposed ordinances or resolutions approved at the same election are inconsistent, the ordinance or resolution receiving the highest number of votes shall prevail.

Sec. 6.12. Ordinances passed by popular vote, repeal or amendment.

No ordinance or resolution which may have been passed by the city council upon a petition or adopted by popular vote under the provisions of this article shall be repealed or amended except by the city council in response to a referendum petition or by submission as provided in section 6.10 of this Charter.

Sec. 6.13. Further regulations by city council.

The city council may pass ordinances or resolutions providing other and further regulations for carrying out the provisions of this article not inconsistent herewith.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT 28

Should Section 8.03 Planning commission. of the Home Rule Charter of the City of Rosenberg be amended in order to provide for an odd number of members on the planning commission; replace obsolete references and update terminology to current legal usage to read as follows:

Sec. 8.03. Planning commission.

The city council may appoint a city planning commission consisting of seven six members and up to two ex-officio members who shall be residents of the City of Rosenberg, shall serve without compensation, and shall not hold any other position in the city government other than a temporary special task force or temporary committee.

- (a) Term of office. The six members first appointed shall serve until May 31st, 1958. Thereafter, the membership of the planning commission shall be appointed after each city election to serve a term of two years, ending on the 31st day of May of each second year, or until their successor shall have qualified.
- (b) Rules of procedure. The commission shall elect, annually, one of its number chairman, and shall establish its own rules of procedure which shall include the following: A quorum shall consist of a majority of the members of the commission and an affirmative vote of a majority of those present shall be necessary to pass upon pending questions, the chairman being entitled to vote upon any question. All meetings shall be open to the public and a record of all proceedings shall be kept, which record shall be filed with the person performing the duties of city secretary and shall be a public record.

- (c) Vacancies. Membership of the planning commission shall be accompanied by active participation in the activities of the commission, and any member who is absent from three consecutive meetings of the commission without valid excuse, as determined by the commission, shall automatically be dismissed from membership. The commission shall at once notify the city council that a vacancy in the planning commission exists. Vacancies occurring in the commission, for whatever reason, shall be filled within thirty days by appointment by the city council for the remainder of the unexpired term.
- (d) Powers and duties. The commission shall have the power and shall be required to:
 - (1) Make, amend, extend and add to the master plan for the physical development of the city.
 - (2) Make and recommend to the city council, approval or disapproval of plats of proposed subdivisions submitted in accordance with Section 8.01 of this Charter. In considering such plats, the planning commission shall require that the proposed subdivisions shall meet, so far as is practicable, all the standards of layout and street and sidewalk construction on comparable property within the corporate limits of the City of Rosenberg, and shall further require that restrictions be placed on the use of the property within the City of Rosenberg.
 - (3) Draft, and recommend to the city council for adoption, an official map of the city and recommend or disapprove proposed changes in such map.
 - (4) Make, and recommend to the city council for adoption, a zoning plan and recommend or disprove proposed changes in such plan.
 - (5) Make, and recommend to the city council for adoption, plans for the clearance and rebuilding of slum districts and blighted areas which may develop within the city.
 - (6) Compile, and recommend to the city council for adoption, a building code, which code shall include the minimum standards of construction for buildings, the minimum standards for plumbing, and the minimum standards for wiring, and gas piping.
 - (7) Submit annually to the city manager, not less than ninety days prior to the beginning of the budget year, a list of recommendations for capital improvements which, in the opinion of the commission, are necessary or desirable to be constructed during the forthcoming five years. Such list shall be arranged in order of preference, with recommendations as to which projects shall be constructed in which year.

- (8) Meet not less than once each month; meetings to be held at the city hall unless prior notice of change of meeting place be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Rosenberg.
- (9) Perform such other duties and be vested with such other powers as the city council shall from time to time prescribe.
- (e) Liaison with city council. The city manager, or his representative, shall attend the meetings of the planning commission and shall serve as liaison between the planning commission and the city council.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT 49

Should a new Section 13.20 Charter Review Commission~~-~~ of the Home Rule Charter of the City of Rosenberg be adopted to provide for a charter review commission to review the City Charter every five (5) years to read as follows:

Sec. 13.20 Charter Review Commission.

(a) Five years after the adoption of this Charter and every five years thereafter, the City Council shall appoint a Charter Review Commission composed of 13, 15, or 17 members from a pool of qualified applicants. Appointment shall be made at the first regular meeting following the anniversary date of the Charter's adoption. The Charter Review Commission shall serve for six months, or a longer term if extended by the City Council, and shall meet at least once each month during its term.

(b) The Charter Review Commission must establish its own rules of procedure, which must require that a quorum consists of a majority of its members and that an affirmative vote of a majority of all members present is necessary to act.

(c) The Charter Review Commission shall:

(1) Inquire into the operations of City government and review the Charter to determine whether it requires revision. Public hearings may be held and the commission shall have the power to compel the attendance of City officers or employees and to require the submission of City records necessary to its inquiry and review;

(2) Propose any recommendations it deems desirable to ensure compliance with Charter provisions by City departments;

(3) Propose any Charter amendments it deems desirable to improve the effective application of the Charter to current conditions; and

(4) Make a written report of its findings and recommendations to the City Council.

(d) The City Council shall receive and have published in the City's official newspaper the Charter Review Commission's final report. It shall consider any recommendations and, if any amendments are presented, shall order the amendment or amendments submitted to the voters of the City.
